About August Course

Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet's August Course, led by Founding Artistic Director Marcia Dale Weary, is taught by the esteemed CPYB academic year faculty. Focusing on refining ballet technique and gaining strength and stamina, this intensive course is ideal for beginning, intermediate and advanced students.

Students may choose to attend either one or both weeks of study. It is strongly recommended that students choosing to take classes only one week select the week of August 6. This is particularly true for those students taking their first lessons in ballet.
