CPYB NOW OFFERING CLASSES IN LEMOYNE

Carlisle, PA –Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet (CPYB) will be adding classes to a new location in Lemoyne, beginning this August. CPYB will be utilizing studio space in Always Time for Dancing, 829 State Street in Lemoyne (in the State Street Plaza).

An Open House is scheduled for Saturday, July 25 from 10:00 – 2:00 p.m. At the Open House, guests can tour the studio, meet the instructor, view class demos and register for August Course and Academic Year.

August Course at the new Lemoyne location will be held August 3-7 and August 10-14, 2009. During these two weeks, students may choose either one week or both weeks for study. Classes include Mommy & Me, Beginning Tap, Preschool and Primary divisions. Registration forms are available at www.cpyb.org.

Pre-school Division classes for students ages 2 to 6 include Mommy and Me, Pre-Ballet 1 & 2 and Beginning Tap. These classes focus on stretching and body awareness exercises. They also stress proper alignment of the body from the heels to the top of the head and develop rhythm and coordination.

Primary Division beginning ballet classes are available for children ages 6 and up and focus on the study of ballet technique. The student will learn the basic ballet positions, the progression of a standard ballet barre, and learn the French vocabulary that defines all of the steps in ballet. Students in beginning ballet who take 3 or more classes per week are eligible for performance opportunities in productions of The Nutcracker and/or The June Series at Whitaker Center in Harrisburg. Costumes are provided at no cost by CPYB.

For more information or to register contact CPYB at 717.245.1190 or e-mail info@cpyb.org.
